

NCAI Fund Victim Services Micro-grant Program

Current OVC Tribal Nation Grantees (ineligible for 2020 funding)

The NCAI Fund Victim Services Micro-grant Program is available to tribal nations, outside of Alaska,¹ who did not receive funding from either:

- the OVC FY 2018 Tribal Victim Services Set-Aside Program;
- the OVC FY 2019 Tribal Victim Services Set-Aside Program; or
- the 2019 Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation (CTAS) Purpose Area 7: Tribal Victim Services Program.

Based on information provided by the U.S. Department of Justice’s Office for Victims of Crime (OVC), the following tribal nations – as current OVC grantees – are ineligible for 2020 funding from the NCAI Fund Victim Service Micro-grant Program. If all funds are not expended in the initial round of funding, a second round of funding will be released in early 2021 that will be available to all federally recognized tribal nations outside of Alaska. If your tribal nation is listed below and you believe that is an error, please contact microgrants@ncai.org.
